About Us: After competing in the state championship game for the last three years, the expectation for this year would be to rebuild. The Lady Warriors though are looking forward to challenging themselves to live up to the huge expectations of their program.

Expected to lead this year's charge are senior returnees Johanna McMillan and Chelsei Mack. Johanna McMillan looks to end her career on a positive note after recently signing to attend UNCW on a full basketball scholarship in early November. Chelsei Mack looks to rekindle her spark plug role in her senior year.

Add to these players the combination of youthful returnees Ayanna Thompson, Shauntel Williams and Chrisyannah Alston and The Lady Warriors could again be championship contenders. The true barometer though may be the new pieces to the program.

The Lady Warriors will add a few new pieces to the mix this year. Amongst them are two highly regarded players-Alison Lewis and Taylor Samuels. The ability of these players to mesh with fellow teammates while learning the multiple Sanford schemes during a tough schedule will ultimately determine how successful the season will be for the Lady Warriors. If history is to repeat itself, the Lady Warriors will have to learn "in the fly".
