About Us:

The Jamesville-Dewitt Red Rams hail from Central New York in a suburb of Syracuse. Head coach, Rob Siechen has been at the helm since 2005 with a record of 176 and 49. The program has had plenty of successes throughout the years but since the 2011-2012 season, the team has been consecutive four-time Section 3 champions, two-time regional champions and two time New York State finalists, proving to have some of the most successful teams in the program's history.

This year the Red Rams return three starters, and an incredible supporting cast of players that are sure to continue to build on the past four years' accomplishments. Senior All-CNY guard, Carly O' Hern has been MVP of the sectional championship the last two years, named All-Region and 6th team All-State as a Junior while averaging 9.4 points per game and has committed to playing basketball next year at Hamilton College. Sophomore All-CNY guard Meg Hair led the team in rebounds (6.5 RPG) and also scoring 9.5 points per game while being named 4th Team All state

Meg has been already getting interest from several colleges while going into her third year with the varsity team. Junior Angela Bussone returns as the starting point guard for her third year on varsity along with sophomore Kasey Vaughan, who will also continue to contribute valuable minutes at the point guard position. Returning forwards, senior Julia Fairbanks, junior Julia Kelner and sophomore Jamie Boenheim were vastly important in backing up last year's all-star senior forwards who have since
